

CLIENT CATEGORISATION NOTICE

On the grounds of Article 89 and Appendix to §1, item 10 of the Markets in Financial Instruments Act

Client: «Name», PIN / UIC: «PIN»

(name, firm, PIN, UIC) Client Number: «CI_»

The investment intermediary Elana Trading AD hereby informs you that according to the established regulatory criteria and the information collected you have been categorised as follows:

Eligible Counterparty (ECP)

Professional client, in respect of:

- all activities and services provided by the intermediary
- in respect of specific actions and services (to be explicitly listed)

We hereby inform you that, as an ECP / professional client, you will not benefit from the respective protection in the provision of services and activities by the investment intermediary, as well as from the right to be compensated by the Financial Instruments Investor Compensation Fund.

In cases where the II, Elana Trading AD, in the course of the activity carried out by the company, finds that you no longer meet the requirements for the respective categorisation, it will then take the necessary measures to apply a higher degree of protection.

We hereby inform you that you have the right to request from Elana Trading AD to categorise you differently for all or for specific investment services and activities.

In case your request is granted by Elana Trading AD, the higher degree of protection will be provided to you on the basis of a written agreement between Elana Trading AD and you, explicitly specifying the specific services, activities, transactions, financial instruments or other financial products in respect of which Elana Trading AD will provide you with a higher degree of protection.

The Client is required to inform Elana Trading AD of any change in the data that served as a basis for his categorisation.

By signing this notice, the Client agrees with his categorisation thus made.

For the Client:

For Elana Trading AD:

Date: _____